Stay in the delightful town of Innsbruck in the heart of The Austrian Tyrol. Ride steam trains to the village of Mayrhofen and the mountain lake at Aachen. Visit the musical city of Salzburg (setting for the classic movie 'The Sound of Music') and travel through the scenic Arlberg Mountains then on into Switzerland.

Saturday 24 June:

Mid day departure from London St Pancras by Eurostar, 1st Class to Brussels. Then onward connection to Koln and an overnight stay, evening meal at hotel included.

Sunday 25 June:

Depart Koln after breakfast by Inter City train, travelling in 1st Class via Munich to Innsbruck for a five night stay at a hotel in the heart of the town.

Monday 26 June:

Day to explore Innsbruck. Options include The Hungerbergbahn - a hybrid funicular railway to experience gorgeous city and mountain views from up high, or why not take the country tram through the woods to alpine village of Ingls, returning via the the well signposted paths to Innsbruck. Stroll around the the compact centre of Innsbruck itself with its fine houses, cathedral, Hofburg Palace, museums and pavement cafes.

Tuesday 27 June:

Take a steam train ride along the scenic Ziller Valley to the village of Mayrhofen, then time for a leisurely lunch or a cableway ride before returning by rail to Jenbach and Innsbruck.

Wednesday 28 June:

By private coach to Innsbruck for a guided tour of the city. The rest of the day is free to explore Mozart's birthplace with its maze of narrow streets and cobbled courtyards dominated by the castle. Or you might like to visit the Mirabel Gardens, the traditional coffee houses or simply take advantage of the superb shopping on offer. You may even get the opportunity to experience a live concert during the summer music festival before returning to Innsbruck.

Thursday 29 June:

Today, enjoy a ride on a steam mountain railway to Aachensee, including a cruise on the lake.

Friday 30 June:

Depart Innsbruck after breakfast, by rail, through the impressive Arlberg Mountains to Zurich in Switzerland, connecting onwards to Montreux on the shores of Lake Geneva for an overnight stay.

Saturday 01 July:

Depart Montreux after breakfast by 1st Class rail to Paris, where we connect with the Eurostar service to London St Pancras, arriving London late afternoon.
