An intensive short break featuring six steam lines including one exclusive steam charter.

Thursday 07 September:

Mid-morning departure from London Heathrow or Manchester to Munich connecting onwards by rail to Linz. Stay five nights at the Ibis Hotel, situated across the road from the station. The hotel features a bar and restaurant.

Friday 08 September:

A local train ride to Timelkam for an exclusive steam charter over the standard gauge line to Ampflwang and visit to the steam roundhouse.

Saturday 09 September:

Rail to Steyr, vintage Postbus transfer to the narrow gauge Steyrtalbahn for a steam train ride over the 17km line to Grunberg and return. Time to look around the attractive town of Steyr before returning by rail to Linz.

Sunday 10 September:

By rail to St.Polten then vintage electric to Obergrafendorf. Here Mh6 steam loco is attached for the stiff climb all the way to Mariazell a further 72 kms. At Mariazell there is the opportunity to ride a steam tram engine to a nearby lake before returning by steam to Obergrafendorf, vintage electric to St.Polten and mainline train to Linz.

Monday 11 September:

By fast "Railjet" train to Worgl and local train to Jenbach for a ride over the narrow gauge Zillertalbahn to Mayrhofen. Time for lunch before returning behind steam to Jenbach. Then Achenseebahn steam rack railway over the mountain and down the other side to a lake where we take a relaxing cruise. Return by steam to Jenbach and "Railjet" service to Linz.

Tuesday 012 September:

Morning departure from Linz by rail to Munich to connect with the onward flight to London Heathrow or Manchester arriving back late afternoon.
